Mr. Macready is engaged to play at the Liverpeol Theatre-Royal. He has also concluded an engagement with the manager of the Princess' Theatre, London, to appear early in November, and play six weeks, after which he goes to the provincial theatree.

The hundred and twenty-second meeting of the three choirs of Worcester, Hereford, and Gloucester, was about to take place.

Who shall say (observes a Liverpool journal) that we are not a music loving people, on looking at the announcements in our present paper? The London season having closed, all the leading artists are visitatible to the control of the control o announcements in our present paper? The London season having closed, all the leading artists are visiting the provinces, and Liverpool is deemed worthy of their first attention. At the Theatre Royal, Miss Romer, Messrs. Harrison, and Borram will appear in opera during the whole of the next week. Tonight, and on Monday, Braham and his sons appear at the Concert Hall, Lord Nelson street. On Monday, Jullien has a concert monstre at the Zoological Gardens. On the same night there is an undress Philharmouic concert. On Wednesday and Friday, at the Concert-hall, Mr. Templeton gives farewell vocal entertainments, previous to his departure for America. On the 1st of September, Madame Castellan, Miss Dolby, Signors Brizzi, Orsini, Fornasari, and Leati, sing at the Royal Assembly Rooms. On the 5th, 8th, and 10th, Miss Whitnall has Grisi, Mario, and the Lablaches at the Amphitheatre; and on the 11th there is a full dress Philharmonic Concert, with Signors Rossi, Caccia, Brambilla, and Signors Moriani, Gallinari, and Puzzi.

A splendid gold cup has been presented to Mr. Lumley, the lessee and manager of Her Majesty's Theatre, by a number of that gentleman's friends and admirers.

A new comic drama, in three acts, was produced at the Lyceum in London, called "By Royal Command"—a bad version of a French piece ("La Gardeuse des Dindons.") The dialogue is so poorly rendered that but for the merits (such as they are) of the story and situations, combined with the excellent acting of Mrs. Keeley, who performs the part of Gothe (the Turkey-feeder), it must inevitably have gone to the tomb of all the Capulets.

During the last week, Madame Celeste and Mr. Webster have performed nightly at the Yarmouth theatre. Although the price of the dress boxes were raised, the houses have been very well attended, and on Friday night (Madame Celeste's benefit) the theatre was almost as full as it was possible to be. Madame Celeste and Mr. Webster have taken prominent parts in "Green Bushes," "Used Up," "The Trumpeter's Daughter," "Suzanne," "The Women Hater," &c.

Court Intelligence.

General Stasions, Sept. 20th.—Before the Recorder and Aldermen Rich and Scaman. M. C. Paterson, Esq., District Attorney.

Sentences.—Sentences were pronounced this morning in the following cases, viz.:—

John G. Harden and Charles Mason found guilty of forgery in the third degree, in making a check on the North River Bank for $300, in the name of Wm. Joyce, sentenced to be confined in the State Prison.—Harden for four years, and Mason for two years.

Barnard Mulligan, convicted for an assault of a very aggravated character on Thomas Hollohan, also another assault on Mr. Fisherman, was fined $100, being $50 for each offence.

Patrick McQuade, found guilty of being the receiver of stolen property, was fued $100.

Hugh Smith, John Sheridan, and John Radcliffe, found guilty of a riot, also an assault and battery, were ordered to pay a fine of $10 each.

Grand Larceny.—The District Attorney then called to trial Patrick McCabe, indicted for a grand larceny in stealing a gold watch worth $34 from Feter Chrystal, of No. 180 Broadway.

The Jury was sworn, and progress made in the trial, when, by consent of the District Attorney and the Court a Juror was withdrawn, and the trial postponed in consequence of the absence of several witnesses, who were to testify on the part of the accused. The case will be tried at the next term, when it is probable that some queer developments will leak out relative to this affair, as it appears that the complainant, Peter Chrystal, keeps a mock auction establishment in Broadway, and the accused had officiated in the honorable calling of a Peter Funk, or sham bidder, in the same concern.

Discharge of the Petit Jury.—The petit jury were then discharged for the term. During the present term, therefore one on the term. During the present term, and delivered some bills of indictment, also a present ment in relation to the landing of cattle at the piers in the lower part of the city, an

Common Pleas.

Before Judge Ulshoeffer.

Seft. 20.—Hogancamp vs. Jones.—The jury in this case, already noticed, being an action against the sheriff to recover damages for a talse return of a f. fa. against parties named—Tripp and Miller—rendered a verdict for defendant. It appeared that several executions against Tripp were placed in the hands of the sheriff, and also executions against Tripp & Miller, conjointly, as partners in the stock and fixtures of a grocery store, situated near the Bloomingdale Road. The sheriff having sold the goods as the property of Tripp, and applied the proceeds to the satisfaction of the executions against him, plaintiff sued to recover of the sheriff for not selling the goods as the property of both and applying the proceeds towards the executions against them jointly. Verdict for defendant.

Court Calender.

Common Pleas—Monday—Part I—Nos. 87, 89, 91, 93, 95, 99, 101, 103, 37, 171. Part 2—Nos. 162, 32, 52, 56, 60, 68, 74, 76, 16, 18.

Health of New Orleans.—Upon enquiry at the Charity and private Hospitals yesterday, we could obtain no information as to the existence of yellow fever in the city. No case, at any rate, had there been presented. These is a good deal of conversation on the subject, and very naturally many rumors are circulating in regard to the actual health of the city; but so far as we can judge after considerable enquiry, the slarm as to an epidemic is subsiding, so many physicians having declared their belief that the fever has not yet made its appearance in an undoubted form.—N. O. Pic., Sept. 13.

Anti-Rent Trials. Hubson, Sept. 21st, 1845.
The trial of Doct. Boughton, alias Big Thunder, pre

The trial of Doct Boughton, siles Big Thunder, pregresses with its usual speed—slow, to be sure, but still as fast as the case will allow. The prosecution is doing all in their power to give the Doctor his just deserts, and it seems to be the general opinion that he must be placed in the same cage with Monroe Edwards, and others of like character. The District Attorney, Theodore Miller, has used all the endeavors possible to obtain the swidence that will convict the prisoner and success will crown them; for when those men that have been deluded, and have been deluded so far to dress in disguise and testify to such startling facts as some of them have, and others will follow, it can but convince every honest man that Doct. Boughton is guilty, and the jury will convict him. On the examination of one Traver, he admitted he had been an Indian, was present at the meeting when young Rifenburgh was shot, saw Doct. Boughton go into the room in citizens dress, and afterwards come out in disguise and take the command in the name of Big Thunder, and swears that Doct. Boughton is one and the same individual—knows him well. Can such evidence as that go by disregarded by the jury? No—it will not. They will convict him sure, and silence the Anti-Rent question in this county. The counsel for Big Thunder leels will convict him sure, and silence the Anti-Rent question in this county. The counsel for Big Thunder leels the weight they have about their necks. The District Attorney will do his duty, and that at this very trial, in spite of all the threats that are thrown out. He is but doing his duty—a duty he owes to his State and her laws; and should such men as the counsel for Big Thunder—men that know right from wrong—set such examples? No—I hope for the sake of decency they will keep them to themselves.

The evidence on the part of the prosecution will probably close on Tuesday, and you may see the end of this

The evidence on the part of the prosecution will pro-bably close on Tuesday, and you may see the end of this trial some time after next week.

Our Court of Common Pleus commences on Monday, and a very large calender they have, which will have a tendency to draw together a great many more people.

Let your conversation be heavenly, so that sinners coming nere will pluck off their shoes from their feet, because they stand upon holy ground; also, so that sinners may be converted. We sometimes act in worship wrong. Let us act like rational men, and worship Him in soul and in body, and in spirit. We are looked upon as a peculiar people, by the Church and the world's people, because we are looking daily for the coming of God. The world is struck with terror. I feel in my soul that Christ is coming. The Holy Ghost has been here—lifeel him in my soul. I never had a better night, for he came and communed with me.
